

The Outer Banks History Center
Presents the Exhibit

The Civil War Comes to Roanoke Island

Fishers, Fighters, & Freedmen

March 3—December 30, 2012

"The Civil War Comes to Roanoke Island: Fishers, Fighters and Freedmen" tells the story of an important engagement early in the war. Despite Confederate efforts, Union victory meant control of the waterways in northeastern North Carolina. Roanoke Island became home to thousands of runaway slaves, who flocked to the area for protection.

OBHC
Outer Banks History Center

Free & Open to the Public

NORTH CAROLINA
DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL RESOURCES
www.ncculture.com

The Outer Banks History Center is a regional archives and research library of the State Archives located across from the Manteo Waterfront.

1 Festival Park, Manteo, N.C. 27954

N 35° 54.704' W 075° 30.981'

Find us at (252) 473-2655, obhc@ncdcr.gov or visit www.obhistorycenter.ncdcr.gov.

This exhibit and its promotion made possible through the generous support of these sponsors

The Friends of the OBHC
Outer Banks History Center

Outer Banks
COMMUNITY
Foundation

